

Stutzman Summary

Cedar Hill, Texas

Nov - Dec 2001

Verna's work

Verna finished the beta test release of the Scripture Checklists software before she left for England in July to attend a Lexicography Workshop at the University of Brighton. There were 50 participants from 20 different countries present. She had an opportunity to demonstrate the LinguaLinks software at the workshop. Please pray for her upcoming trip to Papua New Guinea in February.

Our summer travels

From England Verna flew to Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, where Robert met her at the airport. We presented our work in Bible translation to eight churches in Western Canada. We were also privileged to be the guest speakers at a summer camp for Wycliffe Associates.

Robert's work

Robert demonstrated the comprehension testing questions to the International Translation consultants in June. Currently, he is editing the Bible Background Series – a set of 13 books of biblical information, designed to be translated into vernacular languages along with the Bible, to help people have a better understanding of the Bible.

Our health

In January, Robert was diagnosed with glaucoma. Fortunately, it was discovered early enough that no irreparable damage has been done to his eyes. He is able to keep the condition from worsening with the use of eye drops. Recently, he has also been diagnosed with osteoporosis in his hips and lower back. Please pray that God will keep us in His divine health.

Jeremy's trial

Jeremy was found guilty of four of the nine charges. Subsequently, he fired his lawyer and has retained a new lawyer. The new lawyer plans to request a retrial at a hearing on January 18, 2002. Please pray that the judge would grant a new trial and that it would be more successful than the last trial.

Thank you

Thank you for your prayers and your financial support. Since most of our financial support comes to us from Canada, every time the exchange rate devalues the Canadian dollar, our faith in our Heavenly Father increases. He is faithful to take care of us in every way. We pray God will bless you as you bless us.

*Love,
Robert & Verna*
